Born in St Louis NB, Edmond talked about his love for digging clams and catching trout in Twiddy Brook near his home. Often mentioned were Shediac, Buctouche, Richibucto, the Magnetic Hill and the Tidal Boar. He moved to the USA in the early 1900's with the family. Married in Rumford ME, the family then moved to Ticonderoga NY, where Edmond worked in the paper mills. They eventually settled in Chicopee MA. Here, Edmond worked in the Steven Durea Automobile Plant, Needle Shops, and as a Machinist at the American Bosch Magnetic Plant in Springfield. He finally returned from the Falls Machine Screw Co. He was known to have made violins in his spare time...
